20210224-Mr G. H. Schorel-Hlavka O.W.B. to PM Mr SCOTT MORRISON & Ors Re COVID-19 AFP investigation & ROYAL COMMISSION

Sir,

firstly I refer to my writings to you I request an AFP (Australian Federal Police) investigation as well as for a ROYAL COMMISSION, and below I will outline some of the reasons I make this request.

We seem to have “The Australian Government has made a total investment of $6.3 billion in Australia’s COVID-19 health response.” Of taxpayers’ monies for a program that I view is unlawful. How many innocent persons have to die before this madness is reigned in, I wonder?

Also my article:

This document addresses the issue of PM Scott Morrison knowingly pulled a scam about being vaccinated or that the person vaccinating him failed to understand proper medical procedures. And if the latter then he better ensure rigid rules are in place to protect citizens, etc.

Also, all and any of my other writings published at <https://www.scribd.com/inspectorrikati>, regarding COVID- 19 issues. This will dramatically avoid me to repeat the same in this correspondence.

3 that syringes with their needles can be supplied in colour coded

12
13 Not being trained in medical or science issues, I rely upon this kind of information that syringes 14 and their needles can be colour coded and the safe removal of any cap from a needle and 15 replacement to avoid injuries the colour coding assist in that regard also.

17 Orange type is indicated to be for “insulin”.

OK people. So ..I have been a nurse for 16 years - i used to work in Emergency for many years. Scott Morrison is a FRAUD. He is not getting the vaccine in this picture. The nurse is using a 25 gauge, 1 ml subcutaneous insulin syringe (also the syringe choice of junkies - for intravenous injections .. straight in the vein). For any intramuscular injections a 23 - 21 gauge needle - 3ml syringe combo is used. With a green or blue cap not orange... the joy of being a nurse! 😊 you dont even have to SMELL the bullshit, you can SEE it from a distance! 🤢🤢🙏

This would be no surprise, given the endless lies and propaganda around the "plandemic". Can we have confirmation from other nurses?

Image "A" about PM S Morrison being injected allegedly with "insulin" not Pfizer "mRNA".
Image "B" shows Minister for Health Greg Hunt and the media to be in attendance.

In my view for an ordinary 'insulin' injection one would not have the media around or for that the Minister for Health Greg Hunt. As such, this is clearly a purported "vaccination" regarding COVID-19 not a mere 'insulin' injection.

15
16 If therefore this purported vaccination was nothing more but a scam as to pretend some COVID-17 19 vaccination while in reality was no more but an ordinary “insulin” injection concocted by 18 Prime minister Scott Morrison and Minister for Health Greg Hunt with or without the knowledge
19 of the person performing the injection as to deceive Australians as to it being OK to take the 20 “vaccine” then I view this is a criminal conspiracy, in particular where the so called 21 “vaccination” of others could have serious harmful consequences and even death.

22 With the media around to publish this kind of purported “vaccination” then clearly this was for 23 promotion of the purported “vaccine” rather than a mere ordinary “insulin” being injected.

24 The fact that the media reported this as a “vaccination” it is clear that the media held this to be a 25 “vaccination” regarding COVID-19 and not a mere “insulin” injection.

26 If Prime Minister Scott Morrison didn’t require any “insulin” injection then obviously this might 27 have been no more but a “placebo” being injected. This would make it even worse.

28 If however Prime Minister Scott Morrison was purportedly injected with a COVID-19
29 “vaccine” but the person doing the vaccination used the wrong syringe and needle than this 30 should also be of a serious matter. If a person cannot manage to get this right on a Prime 31 Minister, even with the attendance of the Minister of Health Greg Hunt, then how can anyone 32 else trust those performing any “vaccinations”?

47 The following I happen to come across earlier today and as I am aware from articles I came 48 across during 2020 that it was now admitted that “autism” is linked to vaccinations but it was for 49 decades deliberately concealed and denied and there is currently a legal case in regard of 50 vaccination causing autism it should be a warning that as like the link of harm and even deaths

10 QUOTE

11 Andrew Jeremy Wakefield (born 1957) is a British former physician and academic who was struck off the 12 medical register due to his involvement in the Lancet MMR autism fraud, a 1998 study that falsely claimed a 13 link between the measles, mumps, and rubella \(MMR\) vaccine and autism. He has subsequently become 14 known for anti-vaccination activism. Publicity around the 1998 study caused a sharp decline in vaccination
15 uptake, leading to a number of outbreaks of measles around the world. He was a surgeon on the liver
16 transplant programme at the Royal Free Hospital in London and became senior lecturer and honorary
17 consultant in experimental gastroenterology at the Royal Free and University College School of Medicine.
18 He resigned from his positions there in 2001, "by mutual agreement", then moved to the United States. In 19 2004, Wakefield began working at the Thoughtful House research center in Austin, Texas, serving as 20 Executive Director there until February 2010, when he resigned in the wake of findings against him by the 21 British General Medical Council.

22 Wakefield published his 1998 paper on autism in the prestigious medical journal The Lancet, claiming a
23 novel form of enterocolitis linked to autism. However, other researchers were unable to reproduce his 24 findings,^{[3][4]} and a 2004 investigation by Sunday Times reporter Brian Deer identified undisclosed financial 25 conflicts of interest on Wakefield's part.^[5] Most of Wakefield's co-authors then withdrew their support for the 26 study's interpretations,^[6] and the British General Medical Council (GMC) conducted an inquiry into 27 allegations of misconduct against Wakefield and two former colleagues,^[7] focusing on Deer's findings.^[8]

28 In 2010, the GMC found that Wakefield had been dishonest in his research, had acted against his patients'
29 best interests and mistreated developmentally delayed children,^[9] and had "failed in his duties as a 30 responsible consultant".^{[10][11][12]} The Lancet fully retracted Wakefield's 1998 publication on the basis of the 31 GMC's findings, noting that elements of the manuscript had been falsified and that the journal had been 32 "deceived" by Wakefield.^{[13][14]} Three months later, Wakefield was struck off the UK medical register, due in 33 part to his deliberate falsification of research published in The Lancet,^[15] and was barred from practising
34 medicine in the UK.^[16] In a related legal decision, a British court held that "[t]here is now no respectable
35 body of opinion which supports [Dr. Wakefield's] hypothesis, that MMR vaccine and autism/enterocolitis are 36 causally linked".^[17] Wakefield has continued to defend his research and conclusions, saying there was no
37 fraud, hoax or profit motive.^{[18][19][20]} In 2016, Wakefield directed the anti-vaccination film Vaxxed: From

43 QUOTE

45 The Lancet fraud

46 Main article: Lancet MMR autism fraud

47 On 28 February 1998, Wakefield was the lead author of a study of twelve children with autism that was 48 published in The Lancet. The study proposed a new syndrome called autistic enterocolitis, and raised the 49 possibility of a link between a novel form of bowel disease, autism, and the MMR vaccine. The authors said 50 that the parents of eight of the twelve children linked what were described as "behavioural symptoms" with 51 MMR, and reported that the onset of these symptoms began within two weeks of MMR vaccination.

52 These possible triggers were reported as MMR in eight cases, and measles infection in one. The paper was 53 instantly controversial, leading to widespread publicity in the UK and the convening of a special panel of the 54 UK's Medical Research Council the following month.^[39] One 2005 study in Japan found that there was no

1 causal relationship between the MMR vaccine and autism in groups of children given the triple MMR
2 vaccine and children who received individual measles, mumps and rubella vaccinations. In Japan, the MMR
3 vaccine had been replaced with individual vaccinations in 1993.^[40]

4 Although the paper said that no causal connection had been proven, before it was published, Wakefield made
5 statements at a press conference and in a video news release issued by the hospital, calling for suspension of 6 the triple MMR vaccine until more research could be done.^[41] This was later criticized as 'science by press
7 conference'.^[42] According to BBC News, it was this press conference, rather than the paper in The Lancet,
8 that fuelled the MMR vaccination scare.^[43] The BBC report said he told journalists: "it was a 'moral issue'
9 and he could no longer support the continued use of the three-in-one jab for measles, mumps and rubella.
10 'Urgent further research is needed to determine whether MMR may give rise to this complication in a small
11 number of people,' Wakefield said at the time."^[43] He said, "If you give three viruses together, three live 12 viruses, then you potentially increase the risk of an adverse event occurring, particularly when one of those 13 viruses influences the immune system in the way that measles does."^[41] He suggested parents should opt for 14 single vaccinations against measles, mumps and rubella, separated by gaps of one year. 60 Minutes
15 interviewed him in November 2000, and he repeated these claims to the U.S. audience, providing a new 16 focus for the nascent anti-vaccination movement in the U.S., which had been primarily concerned about 17 thiomersal in vaccines.^{[44][45]} In December 2001, Wakefield resigned from the Royal Free Hospital, saying, "I
18 have been asked to go because my research results are unpopular."^[29] The medical school said that he had left
19 "by mutual agreement". In February 2002, Wakefield stated: "What precipitated this crisis was the removal 20 of the single vaccine, the removal of choice, and that is what has caused the furore—because the doctors, the 21 gurus, are treating the public as though they are some kind of moronic mass who cannot make an informed 22 decision for themselves."^[46]

23 END QUOTE

24
25 Again, I understand from reports that those involved in research of the vaccination autism 26 connection actually had established this connection but at the time concealed this but since had 27 become whistleblowers. This not only being undue harm caused upon Dr Wakefield but more 28 over to the numerous children who ended up harmed.

29 As my previous writings also exposed that when infected polio vaccinations were discovered
30 then nevertheless they were used on Australian children. This may underline that all and any 31 TGA safety issues can be blatantly ignored by those using vaccinations.

Two elderly Queenslanders given overdose of Pfizer vaccine

Two elderly Queensland residents are being monitored after receiving an "overdose" of the Pfizer COVID vaccine at an aged care facility in Brisbane.

The 88-year-old man and 94-year-old woman are believed to have been given up four times the correct amount of the vaccine on Tuesday at the Holy Spirit Nursing Home Carseldine.

The doctor responsible for administering the vaccines has been stood down.

"A doctor gave an incorrect dose to two patients yesterday," Federal Health Minister Greg Hunt confirmed on Wednesday.

Hunt added a nurse on scene identified the "error" after the doses were administered consecutively.

"In relation to the individual doctor, we'll leave that to the investigation as to whether or not they either did not understand or did not complete but it was a is a serious breach in terms of following the protocol," Hunt said.

Chief Medical officer Paul Kelly added the pair are showing no signs of an adverse reaction.

"We've checked again on the patient welfare this morning and... they're both doing fine," Kelly said.

Both residents are being closely monitored.

The circumstances of the error will be reviewed a report will be filed.

END QUOTE

One has to question how many other nursing home residents have been or will be "vaccinated" far in excess of what they should have been, if at all to be vaccinated.

Again

The 88-year-old man and 94-year-old woman are believed to have been given up four times the correct amount of the vaccine on Tuesday at the Holy Spirit Nursing Home Carseldine.

My previous writings made it clear that in my view the "mRNA" "vaccine" is actually as i understand it a "medical treatment" and therefore can only be authorised, if at all, by a medical specialist in "mRNA" qualified in such field. As clearly had the TGA made clear that before "any person" was to be injected with this "mRNA" matter then first a "mRNA" specialist is required to consider a blood sample of the individual before making a decision if this person should or should not be "vaccinated" and by this also considering the individuals taking any medications, before prescribing, if any at all, "mRNA"

Vaccine then this doctor never could have made this error.

Obviously, that also brings me back to what appears to me the scam to be allegedly vaccinated with the wrong syringe, as when you use a

1 wrong syringe that holds more than what is needed to be used you
 2 may inject a lot more if the syringe is holding more of the 3 substance/fluid then should ordinary be permitted.

 5 Because a person might already have antigens against the coronavirus it requires to have a blood-
 6 test done to ascertain if the person has such antigens, at least in my view. Also, as I understand it
 7 the “vaccination” only assist in “mild” cases of “COVID-19” merely to REDUCE the 8 symptoms, but will not prevent infection itself to eventuate and as such will unlikely be of 9 assistance to the elderly in nursing homes, who are generally already in a very frail condition.

10
 11 Because as I understand it you got people like Prime Minister Scott Morrison and Minister for 12 Health Greg Hunt pursuing that anyone who expresses a different view then that of their mantra 13 is engaged in “disinformation” the result is that their own “actual disinformation” really is 14 harmful and denies individuals to make an “informed” decision.

 16 When some time ago my wife (who is 88 and a heart patient, etc) heard Prime Minister Scott
 17 Morrison on the radio claiming that vaccination would be compulsory she essentially went into 18 panic mode. Yes, I had to cop it time and time again. However, due to my own research she now 19 understands that this fear mongering Prime Minister Scott Morrison and others assisting him are 20 no more but using the media to saturate the news to indoctrinate listeners with their 21 “disinformation” to claim falsehood as to get them to accept their unconstitutional/unlawful 22 conduct.

 24 In my view the so called “vaccination” referred to above with the media presence clearly was to 25 get citizens to accept that it is OK to be vaccinated. Yet, I have not once noticed that either the 26 Prime Minister Scott Morrison and/or Minister for Health Greg Hunt made clear that the TGA
 27 only approved it for “clinical trials” and therefore it must be “voluntarily” and due to it being a 28 stage “clinical trial” then only a limited number of persons can be provided with either a 29 placebo or with the real “mRNA” vaccination.

30
 31 Without seeking to excuse the doctor who was involved in the Queensland fiasco, in my view the 32 TGA seems to be lacking proper supervision as to the Stage 1 “clinical trial” conducted. The 33 question is how many such life threatening fiasco’s are there to eventuate before the TGA does 34 what it is supposed to do and ensure it supervise any “clinical trial” as it is supposed to do?
 35 How many persons may now be dying due to the incompetence of proper supervision of any 36 “clinical trial”?

37
 38 In my view, the possible scam by Prime Minister Scott Morrison aided by Minister for Health 39 Greg Hunt as to the purported vaccination should be subject to an AFP (Australian Federal 40 Police) investigation. Further I view a ROYAL COMMISSION should investigate all matters
 41 regarding the “COVID-19” issues.

42
