

[RESERVED FOR HER MAJESTY'S APPROVAL.]

VICTORIA.

ANNO DECIMO SEPTIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

By His Excellency CHARLES JOSEPH LA TROBE, ESQUIRE, Lieutenant Governor of the Colony of Victoria and its Dependencies, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council.

An Act to establish a Constitution in and for the Colony of Victoria. [25th March, 1854.]

WHEREAS by an Act of the Imperial Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the Session holden in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the Reign of Her present Majesty intituled "An Act for the better Government of Her Majesty's Australian Colonies" it was amongst other things enacted that notwithstanding anything thereinbefore contained it should be lawful for the Governor and Legislative Council of the Colony of Victoria after the establishment therein of a Legislative Council under the said Act from time to time by any Act or Acts to alter the provisions or laws for the time being in force under the said Act or otherwise concerning the election of the elective members of such Legislative Council the qualification of electors and elective members or to establish in the said Colony instead of the Legislative Council a Council and a House of Representatives or other separate Legislative Houses to consist respectively of such members to be appointed or elected respectively by such persons and in such manner as by such Act or Acts should be determined and to vest in such Council and House of Representatives or other separate Legislative Houses the powers and functions of the Legislative Council for which the same might be substituted And whereas it is expedient to establish in the said Colony separate Legislative Houses and to vest in them as well the powers and functions of the Legislative Council now subsisting as the other and additional powers and functions hereinafter mentioned. Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor of the said Colony of Victoria by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows—

Preamble.

I. There shall be established in Victoria instead of the Legislative Council now subsisting one Legislative Council and one Legislative Assembly to be severally constituted in the manner hereinafter provided and Her Majesty shall have power by and with the advice and consent of the said Council and Assembly to make Laws in and for Victoria in all cases whatsoever and all such laws passed by the said Council and Assembly and assented to by Her Majesty or in Her Majesty's name by the Governor of Victoria shall be valid and binding to all intents and purposes within Victoria subject nevertheless as to Bills so assented to by the Governor to the provision for disallowance hereinafter contained.
