Dear Mr Dickson

Freedom of Information Request FOI20/183 – Decision Letter

The purpose of this letter is to give you a decision about your request for access to documents which you submitted to the Attorney-General's Department (the department) under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act).

Your Request

On 9 October 2020, you requested access to the following:

'I request the document, instrument, or law of the Commonwealth that exempts the courts, judges and people of every State and every part of the Commonwealth, from the Treason and Felony Act 1848.

I request the instrument that allows the Parliament of Australia under the Queen of Australia to have any lawful effect.

I request the instrument or information that demonstrates the Parliament of Australia as a legal entity.

I require any information in addition to the finding being referenced.'

On 13 October 2020, the Attorney-General's Department (the department) acknowledged your request.

A decision in relation to your request is due on 9 November 2020.

My Decision

I am an officer authorised under section 23(1) of the FOI Act to make decisions in relation to freedom of information requests made to the department.

In making my decision, I have taken the following into account:

- the terms of your request;
- advice provided to me by officers with responsibility for matters to which your request relates;
- the provisions of the FOI Act; and
- the Guidelines issued by the Australian Information Commissioner under section 93A of the FOI Act (the Guidelines).

Section 24A of the FOI Act relevantly provides that an agency or Minister may refuse a request for access to a document if all reasonable steps have been taken to find the document and the agency is satisfied that the document:

- is in the agency's possession but cannot be found; or
- does not exist.

When considering a decision to refuse access under section 24A of the FOI Act, the Guidelines relevantly provide at [3.89] that an agency or minister should take comprehensive steps to locate documents, having regard to:

- the subject matter of the documents;
- the current and past file management systems and the practice of destruction or removal of documents;
- the record management systems in place;
- the individuals within an agency or minister's office who may be able to assist with the location of documents; and
- the age of the documents.

To identify the documents for your request, I arranged for an officer with responsibility for FOI matters to undertake searches of the department's record management systems. Searches were undertaken with reference to the information provided in the scope of your request. Despite these searches, no records were identified.

Having regard to the above, I am satisfied that reasonable steps to locate the documents to which you have sought access were undertaken. I am also satisfied that the documents do not exist within the department's records holdings. I have therefore decided to refuse access pursuant to section 24A of the FOI Act.

Additional Information

Your review rights under the FOI Act are set out at Attachment A to this letter.

If you wish to discuss this decision, you can contact the FOI case officer for this matter, Da Eun who can be reached on (02) 6141 6666 or by email to foi@ag.gov.au.

Yours sincerely

Antony Catt

Attachment A - FOI Review rights

If you are dissatisfied with the decision of the Attorney-General's Department (the department), you may apply for internal review or Information Commissioner review of the decision.

The department encourages applicants to consider seeking internal review as a first step as it may provide a more rapid resolution of your concerns.

Internal review

Under section 54 of the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act), applications for internal review must be made in writing within 30 days of the date of the decision letter, and be lodged in one of the following ways:

email: foi@ag.gov.au

post: Freedom of Information and Privacy Section
Strategy and Governance Branch
Attorney-General's Department
3-5 National Circuit BARTON ACT 2600

An officer of the department other than the officer who made the original decision will complete the internal review within 30 days of receipt of your request.

Providing reasons you believe internal review of the decision is necessary will facilitate the completion of the internal review.

Information Commissioner review

Under section 54L of the FOI Act, you may apply to the Australian Information Commissioner to review my decision. An application for review by the Information Commissioner must be made in writing within 60 days of the date of the decision letter, and be lodged in one of the following ways:
